

E-learning Privacy Policy

We collect personal information from you, including information about your:

- name
- contact information
- computer or network

We collect your personal information in order to:

- identify individuals and verify those who have registered, attempted and / or completed Drug Free Sport New Zealand Anti-doping E-learning
- process or disclose this information as it relates to athletes and other persons where necessary and appropriate to conduct our anti-doping activities under the Code and International Standards

Besides our staff, we share this information with:

- your National Sporting Organisation, other National Anti-doping Organisations and the New Zealand Sports Tribunal when required in order to identify individuals and verify they have registered, attempted and / or completed Drug Free Sport New Zealand Anti-doping E-learning

If you choose not to enter the required mandatory information, you will be unable to complete registration for Drug Free Sport New Zealand Anti-doping E-learning which may result in restrictions as deemed by your National Sporting Organisation.

We keep your information safe by storing in a secure password protected database and only allowing access by verified site administrators.

We keep your information for as long as necessary to fulfil obligations under the Code or where otherwise required by applicable law, regulation or compulsory legal process at which point we securely destroy it by deletion.

You have the right to ask for a copy of any personal information we hold about you, and to ask for it to be corrected if you think it is wrong. If you'd like to ask for a copy of your information, or to have it corrected, please contact us at education@drugfreesport.org.nz, or (09) 582 0388, or P O Box 17451, Greenlane, Auckland 1546.